Candidate Information
Anna Fomison	I have lived in Waitākere for over 50 years. The Waitākere Ranges are a special place to me and protecting this unique environment is something I care deeply about. In 2003, I joined the Executive Committee of WRPS, wanting to play a more active part in this protection, and since then, I have had a range of roles. In 2005, I was elected Deputy President, and from 2020, I have had the privilege of serving as President. It is an honour to work alongside such committed people who share a strong connection to the Ranges. I have no relevant interests to declare.
Sandra Jones	I joined WRPS in 1981 and was elected Treasurer in 2002. Long-time resident of Titirangi (1973 - 2009), now living in Green Bay. Amateur botanist with wide knowledge of the flora of the Waitākere Ranges. I have no relevant interests to declare.

Keziah Singleton	I am a long-time supporter of WRPS and became a life member in 2017. I became Secretary in 2022. I work as a lawyer in a practice specialising in workplace law. My earliest childhood memory is of a visit to the Fairy Falls track, and my family and I remain keen trampers. I have no relevant interests to declare.
Mary Binney	I have had a life-long interest in the Waitākere Ranges and have been either a full-time or part-time resident for most of my life (though not currently). My educational and professional background is in public policy. I have been involved in several other environmental organisations but currently have no other voluntary commitments. I became a member of WRPS around ten years ago. I am a strong supporter of the work of the Society. I declare the following interests: Currently employed in Governance and Engagement at Auckland Council. I take no part in formal feedback or submissions directly to Auckland Council. I have a few residual commercial interests from the estate of my late father that pertain to Ranges-based entities (in particular Te Uru) and/or subject matter related to the Ranges.
Heather Tanguay	I moved to West Auckland over 10 years ago from Palmerston North. I had 12 years' Local Government experience in Palmerston North. I have always been interested in environmental protection and how the community and the environment can work together. I was elected to the committee 6 years ago. I live in Glen Eden and enjoy the Waitākere Ranges in its many forms. I have no relevant interests to declare.
Additional nominees	The Committee warmly invites anyone interested to put their name forward, either as an office holder or for one of the vacant Committee positions. Please email keziah@fslaw.co.nz Nominations will also be called for at the AGM.
